

The service that XM radio provides for those of us who pay for the service is invaluable. We can get traffic and weather updates instantly when traveling, unlike regular radio where you have to wait for the next news, traffic or weathercast to get information that you want or in some cases, may need. So I would suggest that these services not be interrupted.